Field Rules

We want our children to get some physical exercise, learn some skill and have fun in an Islamic environment. In order to fulfill these goals few rules are in place.

During practice or game, the coach or referees will issue warnings for inappropriate behavior and expulsions for serious infractions. Any child who is issued an expulsion will be removed from the game and also receives a one week suspension. The following are the infractions that are punishable.

Warning:

1. "unsporting behavior" - this includes hard fouls; harassment (such as jumping around, shouting or making gestures to intentionally distract an opponent; blatant cases of holding and pulling an opposing player or his uniform; any action designed to deceive the Referee; and behavior which in the Referee's judgment is unsporting or causes an unfair advantage)
2. dissent by word or actions
3. persistently breaking the rules
4. entering the field without the coach/referee's permission
5. Deliberately leaving the court without the coach/referee's permission

Expulsion:

1. serious foul play (includes any use of excessive force or brutality against an opponent when challenging for the ball. violent conduct)
2. spitting at anyone
3. using offensive or threatening language
4. receiving a second warning in one game

We want the program to be respected by the opposing players, coaches and parents, as well as referees and anyone else that comes into contact with our program. With this in mind, we ask the parents to also abide by the following guidelines:

1. Refrain from talking to your son or daughter during practice or game. We want their full attention and focus for the duration of the activity.
2. Never speak in a negative way about opposing teams, coaches, parents or referees.
3. Discuss with ICBR/GSA staff any questions or concerns at appropriate times.

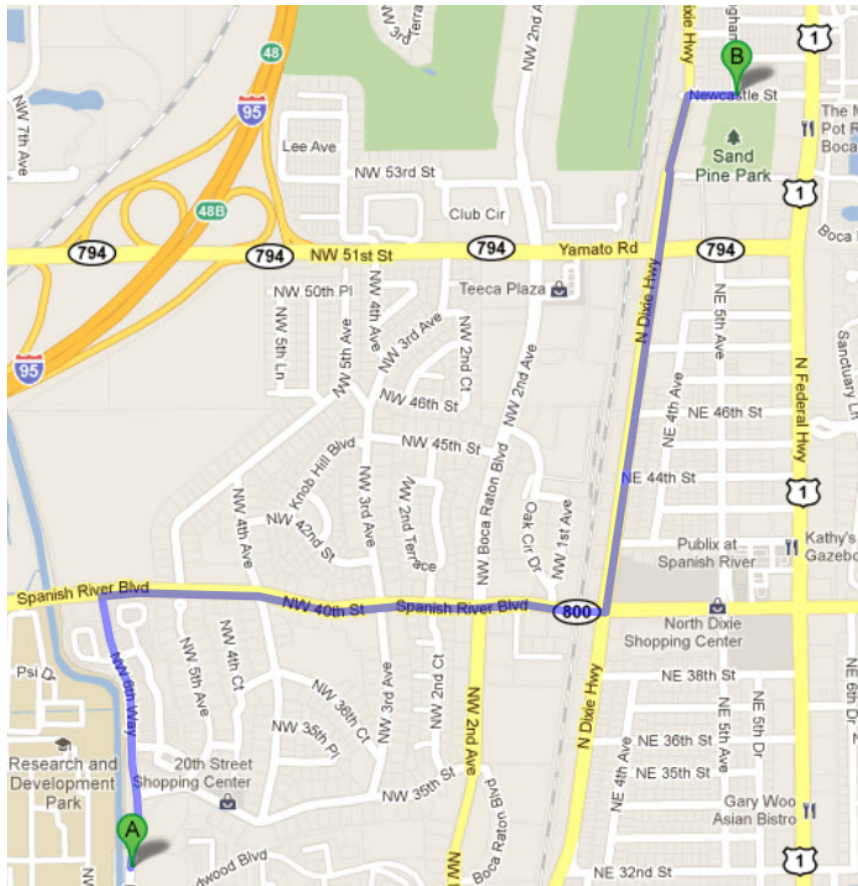

We look forward to an exciting semester of soccer. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your child's coach or the school administration.

Practice with a joyful attitude, an open mind, and a good and kind heart.
